

2022 Ukraine

Free, Unbreakable, Invincible

On August 24, Ukraine issued a new stamp and souvenir sheet for their Independence Day. The general director of Ukraine postal service said, “This year this day isn’t just an additional holiday, but a reminder for the whole world how expensive human freedom is. On August 24, we will have a kind of symbolic date – exactly 6 months since Ukraine was forced again to defend its independence from enemies...”
